

SULADS THAILAND

MISSIONARY QUALIFICATIONS & COMMITMENT

Doing full-time missionary work in the foreign countries isn't for everyone. However, you qualify to be a SULADS missionary in Thailand if you are:

1. A baptized member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and have been in regular standing with the church.
2. Able to serve without expectation of reward or compensation other than (possibly) a small stipend.
3. Committed and willing to die for the Lord.
4. The minimum service commitment when one joins the SULADS THAILAND volunteer is 3 years.

THE MAIN JOB DESCRIPTIONS;

A. To learn the local language (Mien language or depending on which people group you will be assigned).

B. To plant church in an unreached territory and to do other related outreach evangelism activities.

NOTE: The SULADS Thailand reserves the right to take disciplinary actions against any immoral actions or behaviors.

I understand that I am joining SULADS THAILAND at my own risk and liability.
