

January 2025 Mission Report

This month, we were finally able to establish a regular Sabbath gathering among us, the international teachers. This initiative was suggested by the Mhong Church pastor to provide us with an opportunity for intimate worship and spiritual growth. Through this gathering, we are growing together in faith, with each of us actively participating in Sabbath worship.

We continue to pray for God's guidance, that He may prosper us in everything we do—both in serving Him and in deepening our personal relationship with Him. Additionally, we are praying for opportunities to reach out to other foreigners living in Laos, just like us, so that they too may experience the love and fellowship we share in Christ.

As we stepped into the new year, we were reminded of God's providence and faithfulness. He has been opening doors for us to minister, connect with new people, and expand our understanding of His work in different communities.

One such opportunity came through our friend Azeena and her family, who invited us to join their interfaith fellowship. This gathering includes missionaries from different denominations, coming together in unity despite our doctrinal differences. While we do not yet know where God is leading us, we trust in His plan. Our desire is to build a community where we can exercise and share the love of God, reaching beyond denominational boundaries to reflect His kingdom here on earth.

We continue to seek His wisdom and direction as we walk this journey together.
